

Fall 2007 Wine Press NW Tasting Results

Excellent -

Olympic Cellars

2005 Champoux Vineyard Dungeness Red

Lemberger

French winemaker Benoit Murat followed up his impressive debut from the prior vintage, and he starts with some of the best fruit in the state. Its ruby-red Beaujolais color shows its youthful state as aromas of blueberries, cola, pepper and sandalwood kick in. Black currants and plums make for a plush and cushy entry with a juicy midpalate and lots of acidity for a variety of foods. Tannins and red peppercorns appear only at the end.